

For Life's Most Serious Illnesses And InjuriesSM

WHAT TYPE OF PATIENTS CAN BE TREATED AT A PROMISE LTAC HOSPITAL?

Since the “average” length of stay is 25 days or more, patients admitted to our hospital most likely have:

- Been transferred from another medical facility
- Not yet been able to reach their full recovery potential
- Frequently been in and out of short-stay, sub-acute, and outpatient facilities
- Needed pre-surgical optimization
- Required post-surgical aftercare
- Needed high intensity treatment for complications or infections
- Required long-term IV antibiotics
- Needed aggressive wound care
